

Listen2Future Newsletter #1

Welcome to the Listen2Future Newsletter!

Dear valued subscribers,
we are thrilled to introduce you to the inaugural edition of the Listen2Future newsletter, your gateway to the latest updates and insights from the Listen2Future project.

In our newsletters you can expect to find:

- Project Updates: Stay informed about the latest developments, milestones, and achievements of the Listen2Future project.
- Featured Content: Dive into captivating audio stories, interviews and videos.
- Events and Workshops: members' participation in workshops and events.

L2F video presentation

The Corporate General Video captures the essence of Listen2Future, showcasing the heart and soul of our project.

Watch the video

Listen2Future podcast

We are thrilled to announce the launch of the very first episode of the Listen2Future podcast!

Listen to the podcast

PROJECT REVIEW meeting

20th February 2024
8.30 - 17.00
Brussels

M12 meeting

Results of the first year of the project will be presented in Brussels in February 2024. We are working hard to make great progress and to share it with you.

Listen2Future Newsletter #1

Must-read interview

MEMS: How small sensors do great things for quality assurance

The KDT-project Listen2Future, launched at the beginning of 2023 aims to bring the smallest micro-electro-mechanical sensors, MEMS for short, into series production at globally competitive costs. But what exactly is being researched here and what are the potential applications for industry? The WEKA Industrie Medien magazine asked Andreja Rojko, senior manager funding at Infineon Austria.

Read the full interview